

INTERNATIONAL ERASMUS COURSE

MEETING AND LEARNING FROM DIVERSITY

The general objective of this module is to train future teaching professionals to open up to the world in order to teach better and, more specifically, to discover the Belgian educational context on the one hand, but also the diversity of educational policies and contexts throughout the world.

Through a range of theoretical courses and practical workshops, students hosted at the Haute Ecole Léonard de Vinci but also local students (with a view to internationalisation@home) will have the opportunity to follow various courses related to comparative pedagogy, intercultural skills, language learning, etc.
